with the following rewritten paragraph:

-- Referring to Figure 4, a procurement administrator interfaces with RCW 40 to provide for each company commodity code a company commodity document describing in detail the commodity. This commodity document is used in association with a company group association table 272 to generate a drop down list 280 of valid accounts for use by a customer requester [[46]] in preparing a requisition. Associated with each commodity code 268 are one or more purchasing types, such as expense, capital, external (resale), unallowable and allowable buys. Company group association table 272 is provided for associating commodity codes 268 with general ledger account codes 276 from data store 254.

Those account codes 276 corresponding to commodity codes 268 for buy type 270 and company group 242 from table 251 for the company 249 of this customer requestor [[46]] are presented in drop down list 280 as account codes 278 and description 282.--.
